

POLICY AGAINST CHILD ABUSE

In SBH HOTELS & RESORTS we understand that the tourism is an activity that in addition to contributing undoubted benefits like the economic development, the cultural exchange and the international promotion, can provoke the growth of undesirable phenomena as the commerce of the sexually exploitation of children. In this sense, the tourist sector has a big social responsibility to prevent harmful performances in its community and by it we must act as joined to avoid abuses against children. SBH HOTELS & RESORTS rejects these practices and:

- To maintain a police against the sexual exploitation of children, with the commitment to protect the children against all form of exploitation.
- We do not allow the commercialization of sexual exploitation of boys, girls and adolescents to take place in the facilities of our hotels.
- We sensitize our personnel on the problem, in addition to informing them about the existing laws and the risk of not denouncing it. We train all personnel to identify suspicious activities and to denounce them.
- We comply to al laws and cooperate with the government and not governmental organizations that chase these crimes.
- SBH HOTELS RESORTS does not accept minors without an accreditation of parenthood or guardian.
